Dear Litigant,

Enclosed is a copy of the judgment entered in your case.

Your attention is directed to Rule 4(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, which requires that if you wish to appeal the judgment in your case, you must file a notice of appeal within 30 days of the date of entry of the judgment (60 days if the United States or an officer or agency of the United States is a party).

If you wish to appeal the judgment but for any reason you are unable to file your notice of appeal within the required time, you may make a motion for an extension of time in accordance with the provision of Fed. R. App. P. 4(a)(5). That rule requires you to show "excusable neglect" or "good cause" for your failure to file your notice of appeal within the time allowed. Any such motion must first be served upon the other parties and then filed with the Pro Se Office no later than 60 days from the date of entry of the judgment (90 days if the United States or an officer or agency of the United States is a party).

The enclosed Forms 1, 2 and 3 cover some common situations, and you may choose to use one of them if appropriate to your circumstances.

The Filing fee for a notice of appeal is $5.00 and the appellate docketing fee is $450.00 payable to the "Clerk of the Court, USDC, SDNY" by certified check, money order or cash. No personal checks are accepted.

EITZEN BULK A/S,

Plaintiff,

-against-

ASHAPURA MINECHEM LTD., et al.,

ALVIN K. HELLERSTEIN, U.S.D.J.:

ORDER

08 Civ. 8319 (AKH)

On July 14, 2009, I granted Plaintiff's motion to recognize and confirm an English arbitral award and related cost orders against Defendant Ashapura Minechem Ltd., and ordered Plaintiff to submit a proposed judgment. By letters dated July 16, 2009 and July 20, 2009, Defendant contends that entry of judgment is inappropriate because it has not been served with process in this case in accordance with the Hague Convention, and because it has filed an application to set aside the arbitral award in an Indian court, which has scheduled a hearing.

I find Defendant's objections to entry of judgment to be without merit. Plaintiff has offered proof of service in a manner consistent with Adm. Supp. R. B(2), Fed. R. Civ. P. The affidavits of Ravi B. Sonawane establish proof of personal service, at Defendant's offices in Mumbai, of the summons, complaint, and notice of motion. Rule B(2) expressly states that such proof is sufficient, and this manner of service is authorized by Fed. R. Civ. P. B(2)(a); see Fed. R. Civ. P. 4. The Indian court hearing Defendant's suit has entered no order with respect to the enforceability of the award, and entry of judgment is appropriate pursuant to 9 U.S.C. § 207.

Accordingly, by separate order, I grant judgment to Plaintiff on its claims, plus costs and interest as specified in that order.

SO ORDERED.
